We go this way but once, O friend of mine.
So why not make the journey well worthwhile,
Giving to those who travel with us
A helping hand, a word of cheer, a smile?

We go this way but once. Ah! never more
Can we go back along the selfsame way,
To get more out of life, undo the wrongs,
Or speak love's words we knew but did not say.

We go this way but once. Then let us make
The road we travel blossomy and sweet
With helpful, kindly deeds and tender words.
Smoothing the path of bruised and stumbling feet.

Class History by Charlotte Bardwell

Eager were the six scared Freshmen that enrolled in Curlew High School in September, 1949. The Freshman year Brought with it many new experiences. After being thoroughly initiated, we were full fledged members of High School.

Our first attempt at making money was none too successful, as we went in the hole 25¢.

In our Sophomore year, we did somewhat better. We put on the traditional Sophomore Hop on February 14. The theme song was "Let Me Call You Sweetheart". Jerry McAdams and Edwin Nichols were chosen "Sweethearts of the Evening".

Then, our Junior Year held a little more responsibility for us. On May 23, was the Jr. Prom. We elected Eddie Pace and Eleanor Kroupa as King and Queen. Charlotte Bardwell and Hilda Melnyk were the Crowners. Our theme that year was "Moonlight and Roses".

Our Senior year was a very busy one. First, on October 30, we went to Seattle for a long weekend with Mrs. Ellett chaperoning. Then, came the Jr. Sr. Play on November 7.

Our Senior Ball was on Valentines Day. It, like our other dances, was successful. We carried out the same theme song we had in the Sophomore year.

March 18th, we went to Colville to have our pictures taken.

Baccalaureate Services were held on May 24.

And then, the great day arrived! Commencement Exercises on the evening of May 29th.

We Made it!!!

Class Prophecy

The day is May 29, 1963. Ten years ago, the girls who graduated in '53, decided they would all meet ten years later at the school house.

This evening, the old brick building is lighted up, waiting for the reunion. Jerry Nichols is the first to arrive, as she still lives at Curlew on the horse ranch she dreamed of owning with her husband, Edwin.

While Jerry is combing her hair, her best friend walks in. Charlotte Bardwell tells Jerry that she owns a sawmill in Oregon, and teaches in the school that she built for her employee's children. The mill business seems to be good.

The two girls hear someone else coming, and look up to see Hilda Melnyk who is now the prison warden at Alcatraz. She always said she wanted to boss a lot of men. The remarkable part, though: Not a man has tried to escape since Hilda's been there.

After a while, Ruth Howell and Gaye Faulkner come in. Gaye is married to one of the sweethearts she had while in high school, and she sings in a nightclub in New York called, "Nick's Club 77". You can also see her on TV on Channel 10, between five and six p.m.

Ruth had met Gaye in Spokane when her plane from Hawaii landed. She is the Governor of our 49th state, Hawaii, and is married to a handsome playboy. She says she really enjoys her job as Governor.

Last, but not least, Alice Garrick arrives with her husband, from Alaska, where they both are missionaries. They are very happy in their home near Fairbanks with their three children.

Then, a quick glance at the clock tells the girls that the day of the reunion is over, so they bid their goodbyes and depart.

Class Will

We, the Class of '53, of the Curlew High School, of the County of Ferry, State of Washington, being of sound mind and good health, and about to depart from this institution, do hereby make and declare this, our last will and testament.

Section I. I, Ruth Howell, will my big brown eyes to Kaye McMurray, and my basketball ability to Dona Vandiver.

Section II. I, Alice Rarrick, will my love for music to Charlene Egner, and my will to stay away from men to Kitty Anderson.

Section III. I, Jerry Nichols, will my ability to hold a man to Gerry McQuinn, and my silliness to anyone that wants it.

Section IV. I, Gaye Paulkner, bequeath my gift of gab to Darwyn Mathison, in hopes that he will be able to keep up with the other students. To Jennie Marquan, I will my ability to get into mischief.

Section V. I, Charlotte Bardwell, will my old Algebra papers to Terri Brown, and my vocal talent to Irene Barnaby.

Section VI. I, Hilda Melnyk will my small waist to Larry Brixner, and my temper to Mrs. Bendixon, to assist her in disciplining her students.

Section VII. We, the Senior Class, will our patience and stamina to the incoming Freshmen, that they may endure the hardships of the four years ahead of them.
